To help us maintain a safe restaurant environment, we insist that guests, team members and vendors take the following precautions:

- If you are experiencing fever or symptoms of COVID-19, you are prohibited from entering the restaurant.
- Maintain proper space between yourself & others.
- Avoid handshaking & direct personal contact.
- Wash your hands with increased frequency.

If you are unwilling to adhere to these policies and procedures, we reserve the right to refuse service.

Thank you for your continued support.
